

Company: PwC Greece

Due to the continued growth of practice and consistently high demand for technology services, we are now recruiting a Senior IT Security Consultant in Athens for our Technology Consulting. As a member of our team, you will be providing leading edge consulting services including the delivery of IT Governance and cyber security related projects in a demanding and challenging environment.

For more information and applications, you can click on the following link: Senior IT Security Consultant