

Company: GLOBO PLC - Athens (Greece)

The Information Security & Governance Assistant main responsibilities will be to support the Business Information Security Officer efforts in security governance procedures through daily reporting of security operations, assisting in internal procedures, monitoring, and evaluation of Security Framework and get involved in security projects. The person must also be able to identify and propose technical solution on security issues and use security tools for assessing information assets.

For more information, you can click on the following link: Information Security & Governance Assistant